Passenger Code of Conduct

In general, passengers should conduct themselves with civility while using and participating in HSIT services. Passengers are required to follow the direction and guidance of transit personnel within the transit system primarily for safety and security reasons. Public transportation creates a social contract between provider and rider so all may benefit from quality, efficient transportation. A copy of the full Passenger Code of Conduct is available at the Transportation Depot or on our web site: <https://www.cityhs.net/164/Intracity-Transit>

Boarding and Departing

You may board the bus at designated stops along our routes. To depart the bus please pull the cord located by the window prior to your stop.
